

Lesson 3

We have learned so far that microbes are literally everywhere, but would you believe that they are also in our food?

In this lesson, we are going to learn how microbes make our food and how they can contaminate it. It's all about food and food safety.

