

Lesson 3 Flash Cards

Youth can use this matching game to practice vocabulary terms and concepts related to embryology. There are two levels. The first level reviews the essential vocabulary that youth have encountered through the end of Lesson 6. Level 2 is an optional bonus level that adds more challenging details.

Print pages front to back and cut out the cards below along the dotted lines provided.

NC STATE

EXTENSION

This page is left intentionally blank.

Level 1 Vocabulary Words:

Embryo

Embryology

Temperature

Incubator

Three

Humidity

Records

Fertilize

Level 1 Vocabulary Words:

The study of developing embryos is called _____.

A(n) _____ is the undeveloped chick inside the egg.

The machine that does the job of a mother chicken is called a(n) _____.

_____ measures the amount of heat energy.

_____ measures the amount of water (moisture) in the air.

You should turn your eggs at least _____ times per day.

You need a rooster to _____ an egg so it can grow into a chick.

Farmers keep careful _____ each day to track the temperature and humidity.

Level 1 Vocabulary Words:

Pipping

Egg Tooth

Brooding Box

Hatches

Level 1 Vocabulary Words:

The _____ helps the chick break out of its egg on day 21. Then, it falls off.

_____ happens when the chick first breaks the eggshell.

The chick _____ when it completely exits the egg.

A _____ is a heated home for freshly hatched chicks

Level 2 Challenge Words:

The development of an embryo over time.

The temperature should be _____ in the incubator.

The temperature should be _____ in the brooding box for the first week.

The humidity inside the incubator should be _____ during Days 1 through 17.

The humidity inside the
incubator should be _____
during Days 18 through 21.

Level 2 Challenge Words:

99.5°F-100.0°F

Embryogenesis

55-60%

95°F

65-70%